American Legion Post Arranging Gala Program for Armistice Day Celebration.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., Nov. 6 .- At a meeting of the Snyder-Farmer Post of the American Legion last night in Odd Fellows Hall plans for the celebration to be held on Armistice Day were discussed. Definite arrangements were left in the hands of a committee headed by Capt. J. Moses Edlavitch, but it was practically determined to have a program of vocal and instrumental numbers, various stunts, and a diversity of other entertainment, following which there will be a banquet. Members of the post are to attend services in a body at Pinkney Memo-Be Better Looking-Take rial Church on Sunday night at 8 o'clock, when the rector, the Rev. Charles E. BERWYN NEWS Home Robbed of Whiskey By Auto Bandits Posing As Dry Law Inspectors.

BERWYN, Md., Nov. 6 .- The authorities are searching for several men who visited the home of Norman Richardson here Tuesday afternoon, and by posing as officers searching for liquor, made away with several quarts of whiskey, $15 in gold, two Liberty bonds, and a revolver.

The men came to the house automobile and stated to a woman servant, who, with several small children, was alone in the house, that they had a search warrant for the house. According to the servant, they declared they had learned that Mr. Richardson had been selling liquor at the house.

The woman declares that all the men were armed and she was unable to prevent them entering. They ransacked the house. As they were leaving, the woman was preparing sup-Desiring not to overlook any bets, one of the men is said to have remarked that the culinary odors smelled very good, and asked if he might stay to dinner. The woman replied that she had only enough for herself and the children, whereupon the men left the house.

Mr. Richardson, who is a business man in Washington, did not learn of the affair until he reached home that evening. Believing that, although he had not sold any liquor, he might have been violating the law by keeping the whiskey, which was not bonded, in his house and that the intruders had acted in good faith, Mr. Richardson hurried to Hyattsville to try to settle the matter. At Hyattsville he was informed by Chief Deputy Sheriff Thomas H. Garrison that he had a right to keep the whiskey in his
